

King of Kings

1. The King of Kings Grand Champion Title is decided once a year in the fall.
2. The title is decided by a single elimination tournament.
3. When the tournament is held, only current title holders (King of Pro Wrestling, King of the Cage, King of MMA, and King of The Battle Royal) and the Winner of the Halloween Hell Tournament are eligible to enter.
4. The match will be fought in standard pro wrestling ring with hazards.
5. The hazards are as follows: the ring ropes are removed, and small explosive charges are set in the barbed wire.
6. Containers filled with explosives line the outside of the ring.
7. At the 15-minute mark the containers outside the ring explode.
8. The winner of the King of Kings will hold their current title (ex. King of the Cage) in addition to the Kings of Kings Grand Champion Title. They may defend their current title (ex.
